Dear Mr. Overby:

On December 15, 1982, we met on the above-captioned case at the fourth step of the contractual grievance procedure set forth in the 1978 National Agreement.

The question raised in this grievance involves whether local management violated the terms of the 1978 National Agreement by performing certain duties.

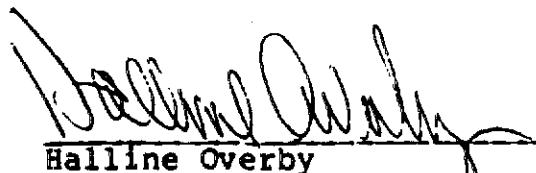

After further review of this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in the particulars evidenced in this case. It is not the intent of the parties at the national level that supervisors will perform the duties enumerated in the applicable handbooks as carrier duties and responsibilities; except as provided for in Article I, Section 6, of the 1978 National Agreement.

Accordingly, as we further agreed, this case is hereby remanded to the parties at Step 3 for final determination of which employee is due how much remuneration. Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Howard R. Carter
